

EMILY POLCARO

Boston, MA • 617-877-1880 • epolcaro@falcon.bentley.edu • linkedin.com/in/emily-polcaro

EDUCATION

Bentley University, Waltham, MA

Candidate for Bachelor of Science, Marketing, May 2028

Additional Major: Creative Industries

Minors: Business Administration, English & Media Studies

GPA: 3.74

RELEVANT COUSE WORK: Designing Brands for Change, Designing Experiences

WORK EXPERIENCE

Bentley University, Waltham, MA

November 2025– Present

Digital Marketing Intern

- Analyze website performance and content analytics to identify accessibility, usability, and engagement gaps
- Optimize site pages through SEO-driven HTML improvements including alt text, heading hierarchy, and internal linking to improve search visibility and overall user experience
- Coordinate content updates and requests across 80+ departments, prioritizing tasks to maintain consistent turnaround time
- Implement and maintains a site-wide AI chatbot, refining its knowledge base and response accuracy to enhance user support and engagement

Boston Centers for Youth & Families, Boston, MA

Summers 2025–2026

Supervising Photographer

- Created photographic work displayed at the Boston Convention and Exhibition Center, reaching large-scale public audiences and supporting city outreach initiatives
- Led a 15-member team in delivering publication-ready assets under tight deadlines
- Edited and curated high-quality image sets using Adobe Creative Suite to support professional media and marketing materials.

Institute of Contemporary Art (ICA), Boston, MA

October 2024–June 2025

Film Production Intern

- Produced short-form documentary content highlighting exhibitions and artists to enhance visitor engagement and turnout
- Planned production schedules with artists, staff, and team members to align shoots, interviews, and creative direction
- Captured high quality video and audio using professional-grade cameras, audio, and lighting equipment

Facility Management Corporation (FMC) Ice Sports, Boston, MA

May 2024– June 2025

Facility Support Staff

- Executed daily rink operations in a high-traffic athletic facility serving 100+ guests daily, maintaining efficient service flow
- Processed daily cash and electronic transactions exceeding $1000 with accuracy
- Maintained facility safety, cleanliness, and organizational standards to support a professional environment

ACTIVITIES AND LEADERSHIP EXPERIENCE

American Cancer Society Relay for Life, Bentley University, Waltham, MA

May 2026– Present

Marketing Director

- Manage social media campaigns and promotional outreach for events to increase student engagement, attendance, and fundraising participation
- Design branded marketing materials and coordinated promotional efforts with club leadership and campus organizations to expand event visibility and maintain a cohesive club identity

USA Powerlifting, Boston, MA

November 2025– Present

State Referee and Lift Together Mentor

- Officiate sanctioned powerlifting competitions by enforcing technical rules and safety standards
- Evaluate athlete lifts in real time, using precise judgment and attention to detail in high-pressure environments
- Communicate rules and decisions clearly with athletes and staff to ensure a professional and fair competition

ADDITIONAL: Bentley Marketing Association, Bentley Film Club, Her Campus, Bentley Women in Fitness

SKILLS AND INTERESTS

Technical Skills: Photoshop, Illustrator, Lighroom, InDesign, Canva, SiteImprove, HTML, Media Production, Microsoft Excel, Word, PowerPoint

Language Skills: Italian (Proficient)